The Basilean 1963

Presented by The Students of

Judge Memorial High School

Salt Lake City, Utah

Dedication

In a world of shaken values a humble man of God has assembled almost 3,000 cardinals and bishops, among them our own shepherd in Christ, to revitalize the Catholic Church against today's deteriorating moral standards and militant atheism.

Pope and bishop, both working in their own spheres, have become united in their paternity of the Catholic school student, fostering his growth, nurturing his spirit, enlightening his changing world of thought and aspiration.

Bishop of Romans, yet father to all, John XXIII looks to us, his children, to carry the cross and the Word into the spiralling future. Strong and wise, our own bishop leads the way, guiding our steps through the halls of learning.

To these shepherds, Pope John XXIII, and Bishop Joseph Lennox Federal, toiling in unison for the one flock, we the students of Judge Memorial High, proudly yet humbly and gratefully dedicate the 1963 BASILEAN.

Superintendent Shapes Patterns for Youth

In concert with the teaching responsibility of the Bishop, Father James Kenney's watchful provision and dedicated direction helped mold the quick hardening shell of life. As teacher and administrator from 1945-1962, and now as superintendent, he has bent his every effort to help shape the pattern every youth must attain.

In his successor, at the helm of the school, Father Kenney looks with confidence and assurance to Father Thomas O'Neill to perfect this pattern.

To meet the changing needs of efficient administration, Sister M. Giovanni and Father William Donohue have capably assisted the principal in maintaining an atmosphere of law and order in the school.

The Most Rev. William D. Buckley, the Superior General of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales visits with school administrators.

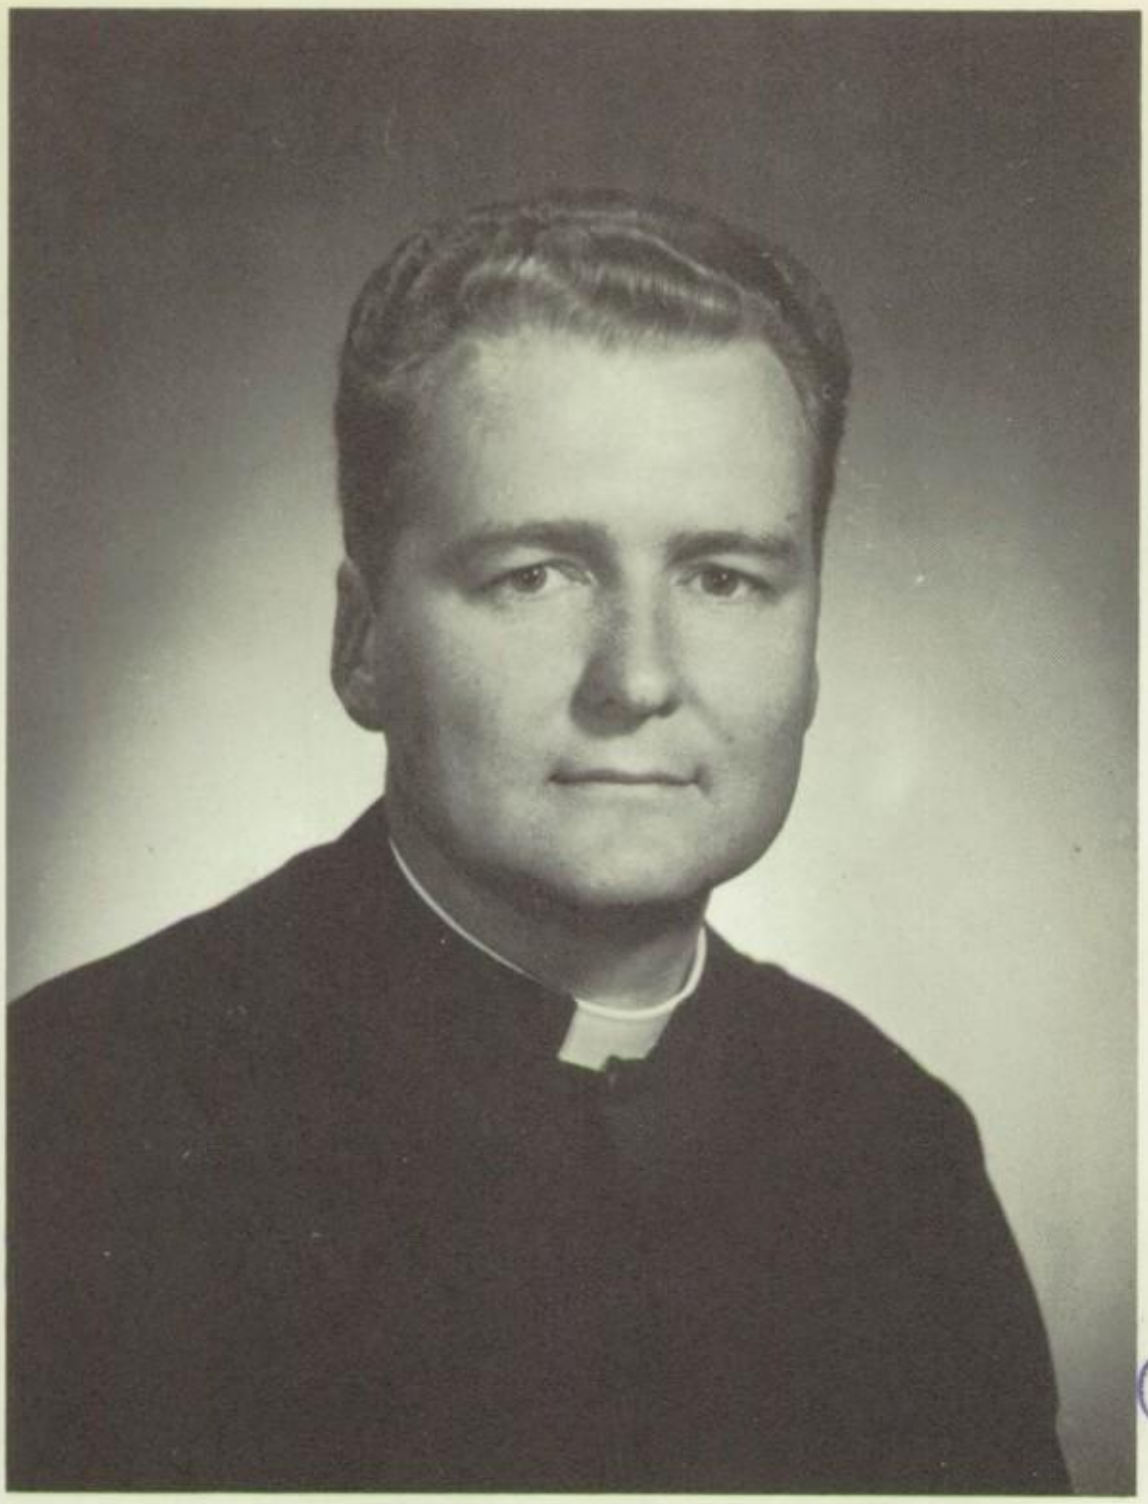
Bishop of Salt Lake City.



Oblates Arrive Blend Gentleness into Firm Policy

"My art is the painting of soul
So fine, so exacting, so strange:
To blend in one tangible whole
The manifold features of change."---Bradford

With the accession of Father O'Neill as principal and the addition of five fellow Oblates of St. Francis de Sales to the teaching staff, the gentle and firm spirit of St. Francis de Sales began to blend itself into a traditional pattern of student and faculty life.

As Seniors We Pass from Seed to Bud

"Countless tiny pieces, looking for a place to fit, wondering where they will be tomorrow, looking to where they were yesterday."
—Anon.

Four years of preparation to meet the challenge of changing times were filled with ups and downs. But on balance we can proudly say that the prospect of the future is bright because we have been introduced to the only way to find the truth — freedom.

Loyal Leaders Accept Challenge of Government

"Most of the change we think we see in life is due to truths being in and out of favor." —Frost

Four Seniors, with high distinction and genuine loyalty, played their roles as Student Body Officers. They were entrusted with the unusual burden of being leaders at a time when traditions were in transit. Often hurled into the throes of dispute, controversy and disfavor, they always by kind suggestion, careful compromise, and conciliation, were able to advance the true interests of their school and their fellow students.

Coach Klekas Leads Gridders To Championship

Once again the Bulldog eleven took to the gridiron under the knowing leadership of Coach Frank Klekas. In his eighth year on the hilltop, Coach Klekas bestowed upon his squad enthusiasm, spirit and skill that led them to a successful season's record of eight wins and one loss. Aided by assistant coach, Mr. Ray Odette and student coach, Wayne Murray, Mr. Klekas formulated a strong nucleus of proud, hustling athletes who played a strong-willed game in the best of Judge tradition.

Murray's Miracle Topples Park City 19-14

Opening the season found much to be wanted in the way of experienced material but after two, tough, preseason victories the team gained confidence in themselves and in their student following. Region Six scheduled four top opponents in the first four games against the Hilltoppers and the momentum of one victory after another carried them through to the championship win on Homecoming Day. A scrambling, aggressive play characterized the team's drive from the first kick-off of the season to the last tackle. this was perhaps best ear-marked in the Park City tussle, when a last minute tackle by Dick Dudley jarred loose a Park fumble that was picked up by Mike Murray and returned for a 19-14 victory.

Moran Field was the place for he class B quarter-final that pitted he underdog Red and Gold against he reigning state champion Amer- can Fork. Going into the game with determination that excelled all ormer efforts, the Bulldog crew truck in the early second quarter s the Judge Fullback pounded in rom the five yard line to make it -0. Soon after the Cavemen sent heir fullback off tackle for fifty-five ards to score, making it 6-6 at the alf. Mid-way through the third eriod, on their one sustained drive f the game, American Fork struck gain to make the score stand 13-6. udge was given the opportunity to core twice within the last four min- tes but the Red and White line eld against their advance. With he final gun the season came to an nd and sadly the Hilltoppers look- d back over a successful year of ine memorable triumphs.

The offensive machine churns into action.

Fullback Mick Gallivan plunges for necessary yardage.

Halfback Scott Petrick sprints for another tally.

Judge Memorial's success was due in a large sense to the play of four All-Staters.

Tackle Dan Ravarino was a tough man to face either offensively or defensively.

End Dick Dudley's sure-handed pass receiving earned him his All-State berth.

Defeating the aggressive opposition of Wasatch . . .

Frosh Gain Experience Skill and Victory

Under the patient, dedicated guidance of Coach Ron Ney, 25 raw, inexperienced freshmen were developed by season's end into a well organized, skilled and disciplined squad, which won four games while losing only two.

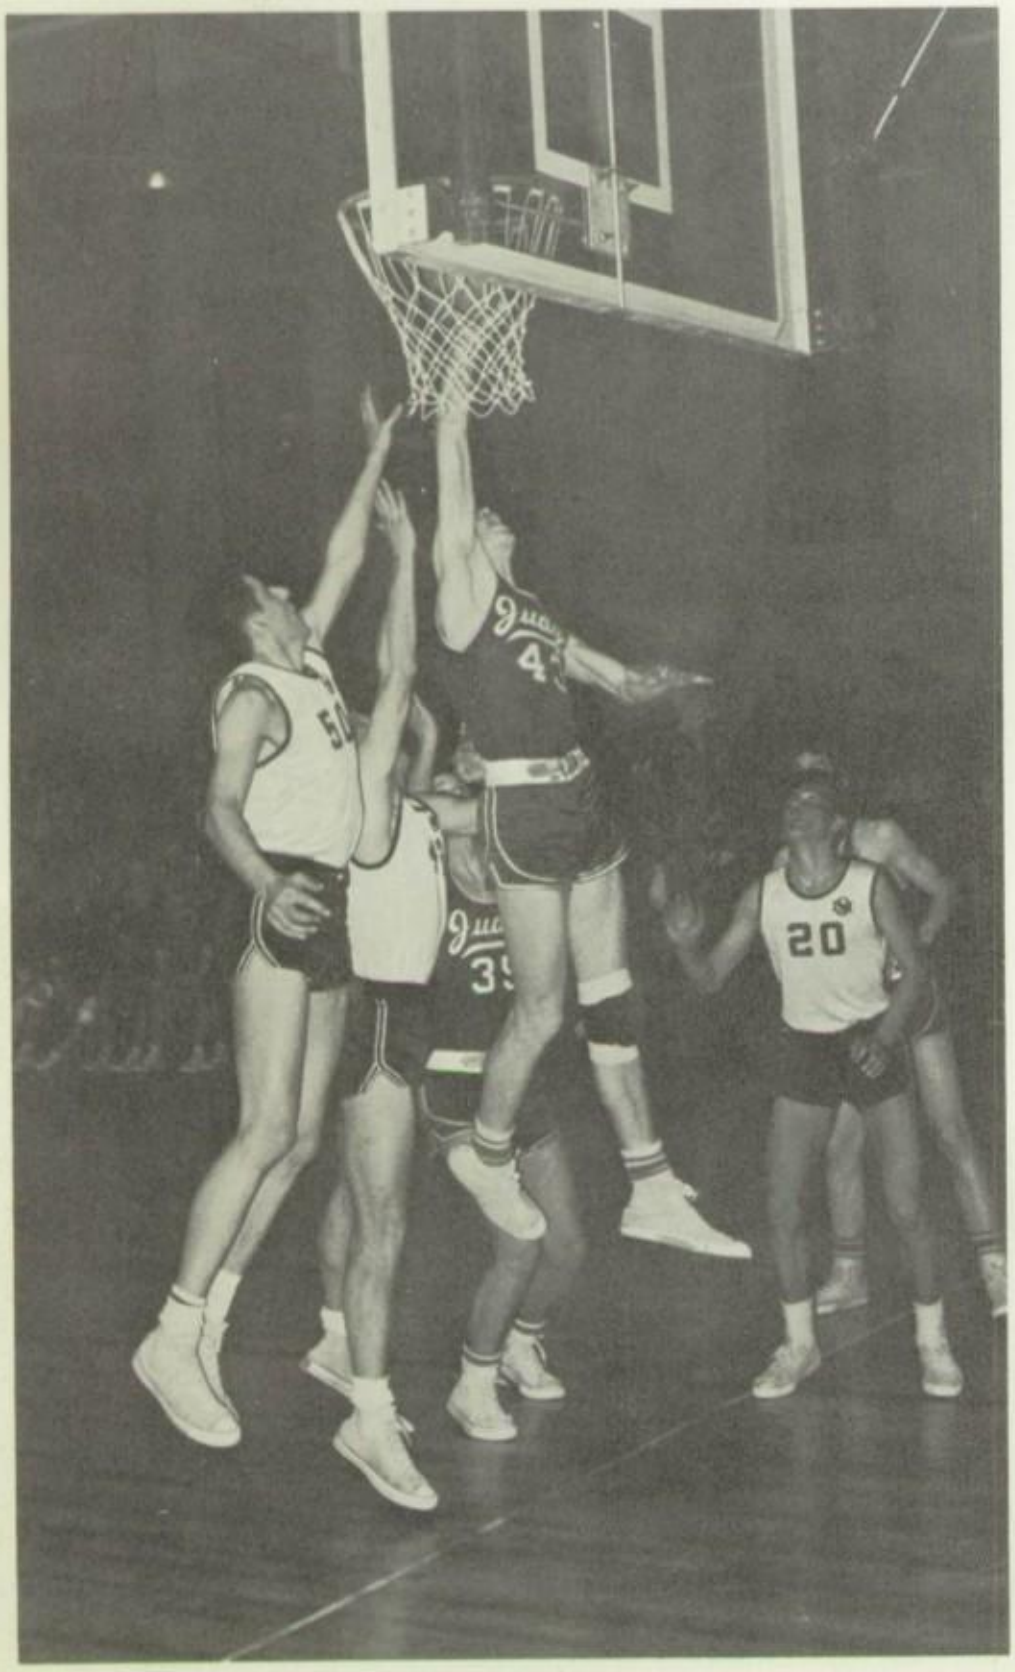
In this team will be found many gridders who will achieve high laurels as upperclassmen.

Coach Klekas starts season hopeful of a championship.

Coach Selects Stiff Schedule

The pre-season schedule was marked by stiff and exacting competition. Tournament teams American Fork, Gunnison, Uintah and B.Y. High gave the Bulldogs experience that was to spell victory when it counted most.

When Region VI play started the Bulldogs were picked as the favorites and rightly so. With four starters back and a strong contingent of reserves Coach Klekas fielded a ballanced scoring team and a deliberate defensive unit which shut out their competition with eight wins and no losses.

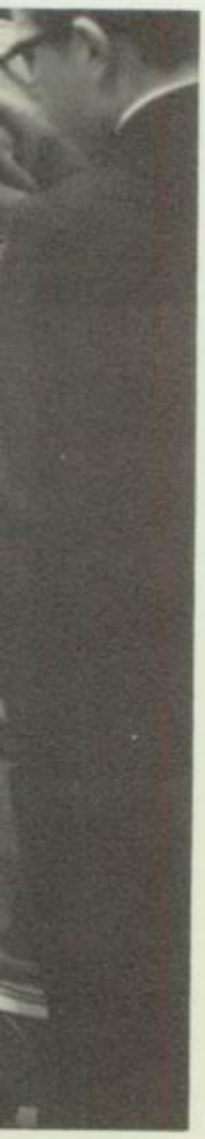


Lanky Steve Cotterall steaks skyward to tap in a two-pointer against St. Mark's.

Teammates huddle around coaches to plot new strategy against B. Y. High.

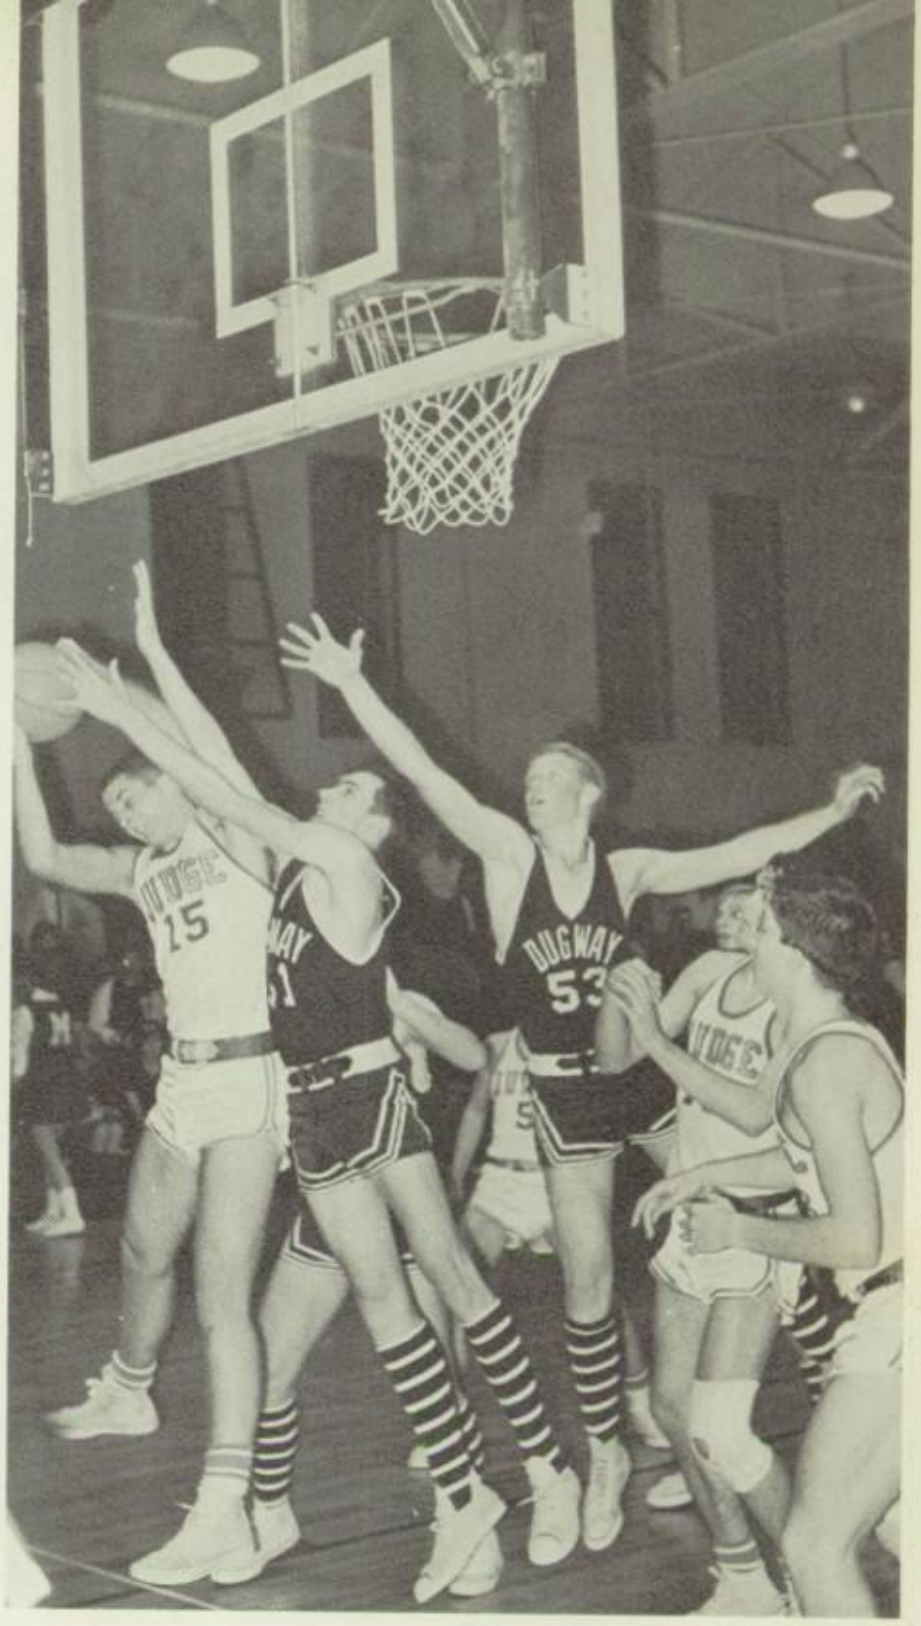
Against So. Rich valiant efforts such as Greg Gardner's were not enough to bring victory.

Balanced Scoring Carries Bulldogs To Region Title



Led by Greg Gardner's 13.5 per game average and the playmaking of Sonny Tangaro the Judge five triumphed over rivals St. Joseph's and Grantsville by converting an apparent defeat into joyful victory in the final minute of play. The board work of steady Jim Caulfield and the clutch performances of Ray Thomas, highlighted by Dennis Bianchi's floor play made them the Region Champs.

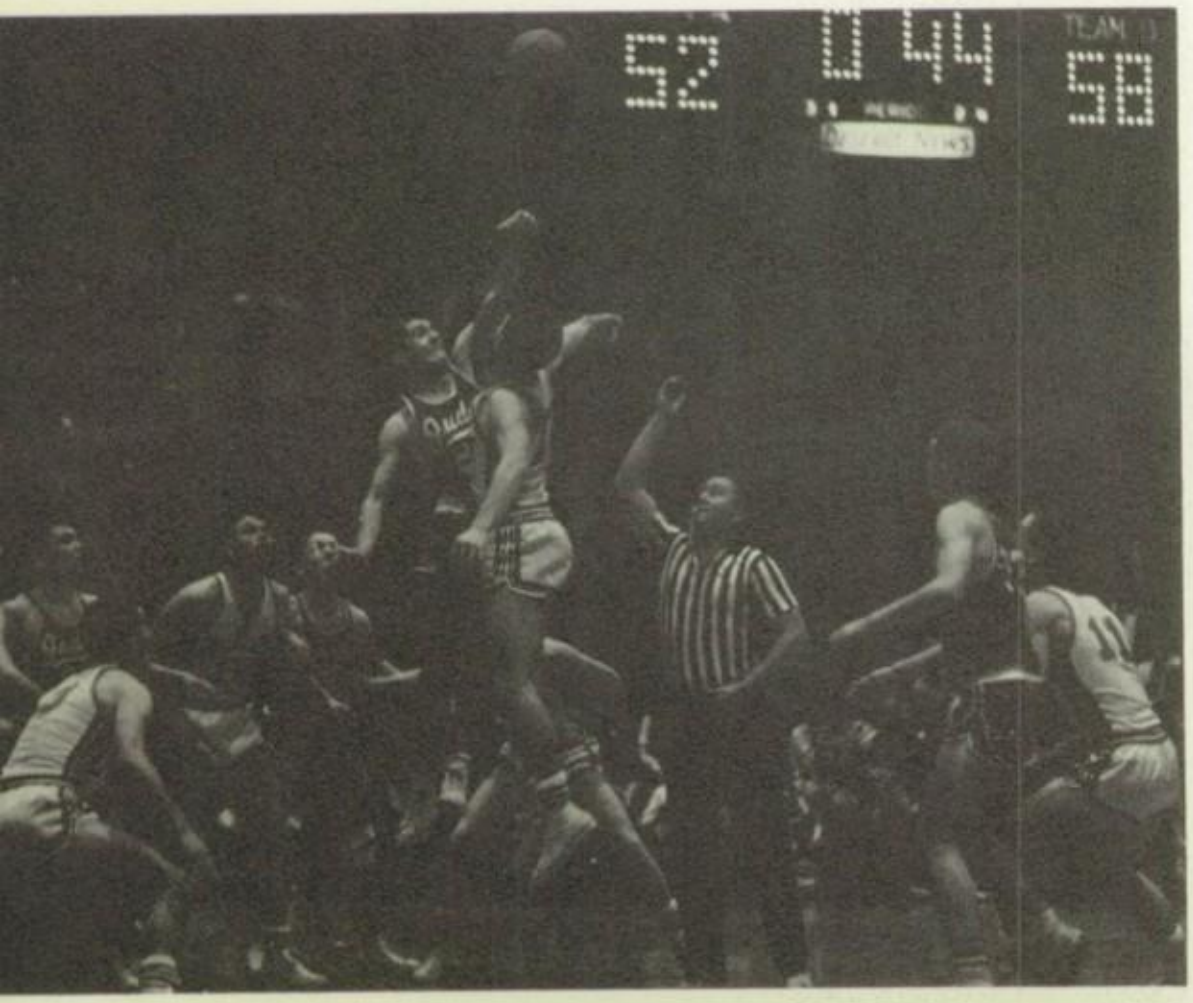
Richly deserving of credit also were Terry Redmond and Gary Einspahr who often took up the slack from tired starters and helped the Bulldogs roll to a berth in the State Tournament.



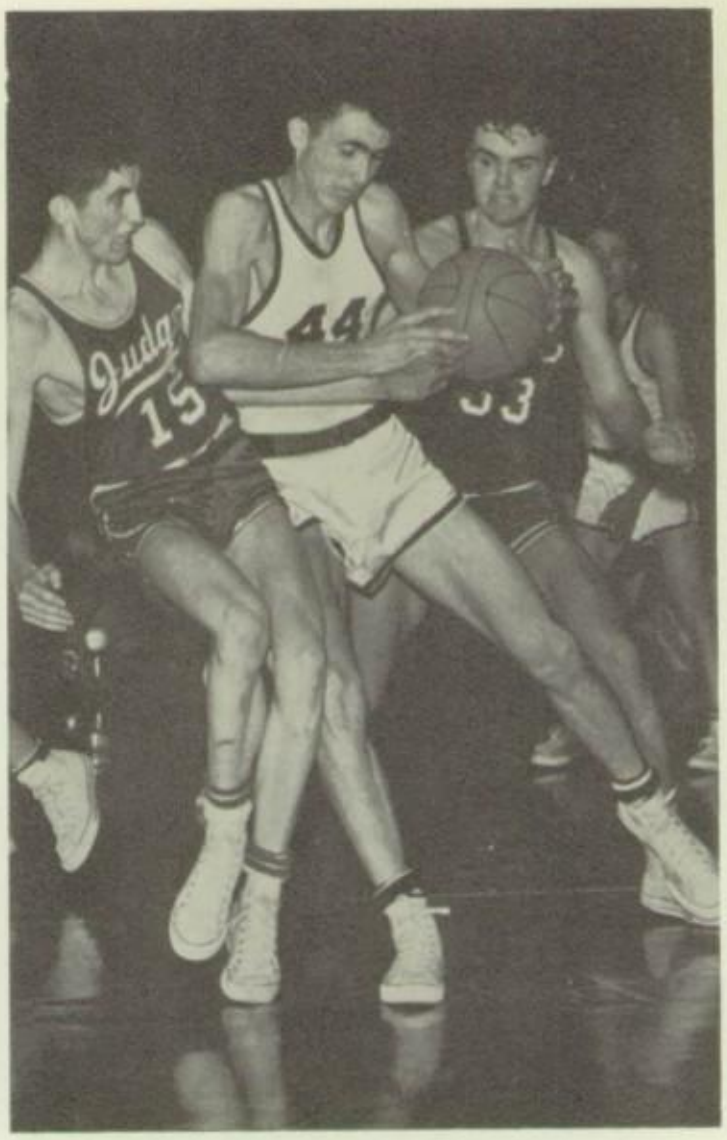
Ray Thomas finds it no easy job to haul down a rebound against Dugway.

Maybe the officials missed this violation but the camera caught Ray in the act of fouling a So. Rich player.

Aggressive play heads the ball towards Tangaro's possession in hotly contested Piute scramble.



Last quarter play against American Fork finds Sonny Tangaro on top of tap play to Jim Caulfield.



Terry Redmond and Jim Caulfield cage in Hurricane Tiger in tough semi-final action.

Fierce and Fiery Five Fight Way to Finals

The State Tournament was the peak of fabulous success for the unheralded five from Judge.

Opening against Tiny Piute the Red and Gold fell behind early in the game but recovered with a flurry of hustle that astounded their opponents.

Greg Gardner led all the scorers with 19 points followed by Ray Thomas' 14 and Jim Caulfield's 12.

Revenge was sweet as the Bulldogs pre-season losers to the Cavemen of American Fork, beat the defending Class B. champions by a decisive 64-57 count.

Trailing in the early stages the balanced attack of Judge caught fire as they hooked and jumped their way to a 31-23 half time lead.

Joy breaks out in Judgeville as team celebrates victory that qualifies them for the State Finals. L–R: Fr. Catanzaro, S. Petrick, J. Peters, J. Thompson, J. Tangaro, J. O'Reilly, D. Bianchi, T. Redmond, G. Einspahr, S. Cotterall, J. Caulfield, Coach Klekas, M. Murray, P. Williams, T. May, G. Gardner, R. Thomas and Coach Odette.

Strong Reserves Spell Semi-Final Win

But the Cavemen showed their championship flair by climbing with four points in the last two minutes. Dennis Bianchi saved the day as his three trips to the charity stripe proved good for six points and a victory.

In the semi-finals against Hurricane it was a combination of outstanding team play and reliable bench strength that carried the Bulldogs to a 67-59 victory. Moments of glory were shared by the high scoring trio Sonny Tangaro, Ray Thomas and Terry Redmond and the alert defense of Dennis Bianchi, Gary Einspahr and Jim Caulfield conducted the squad safely home.

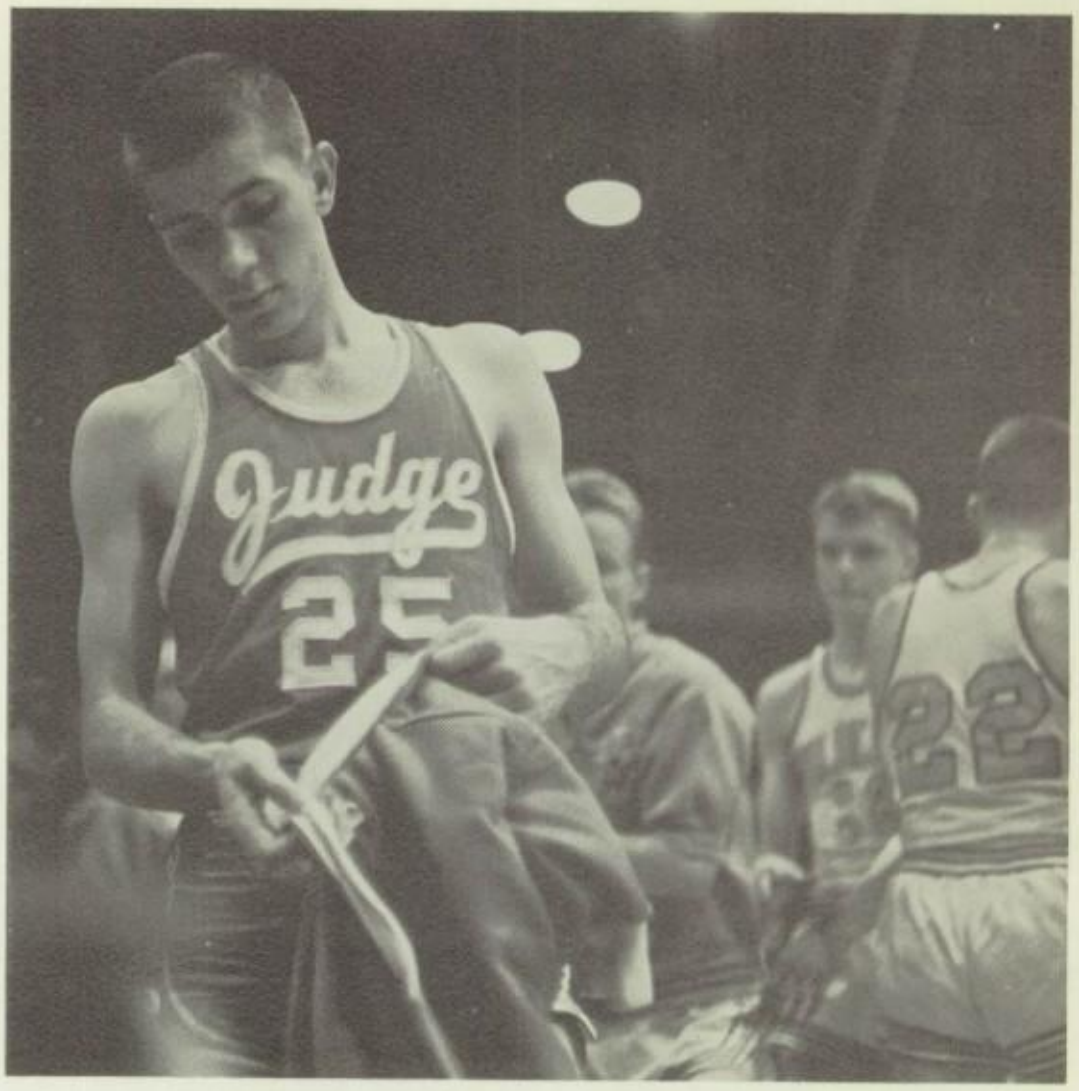
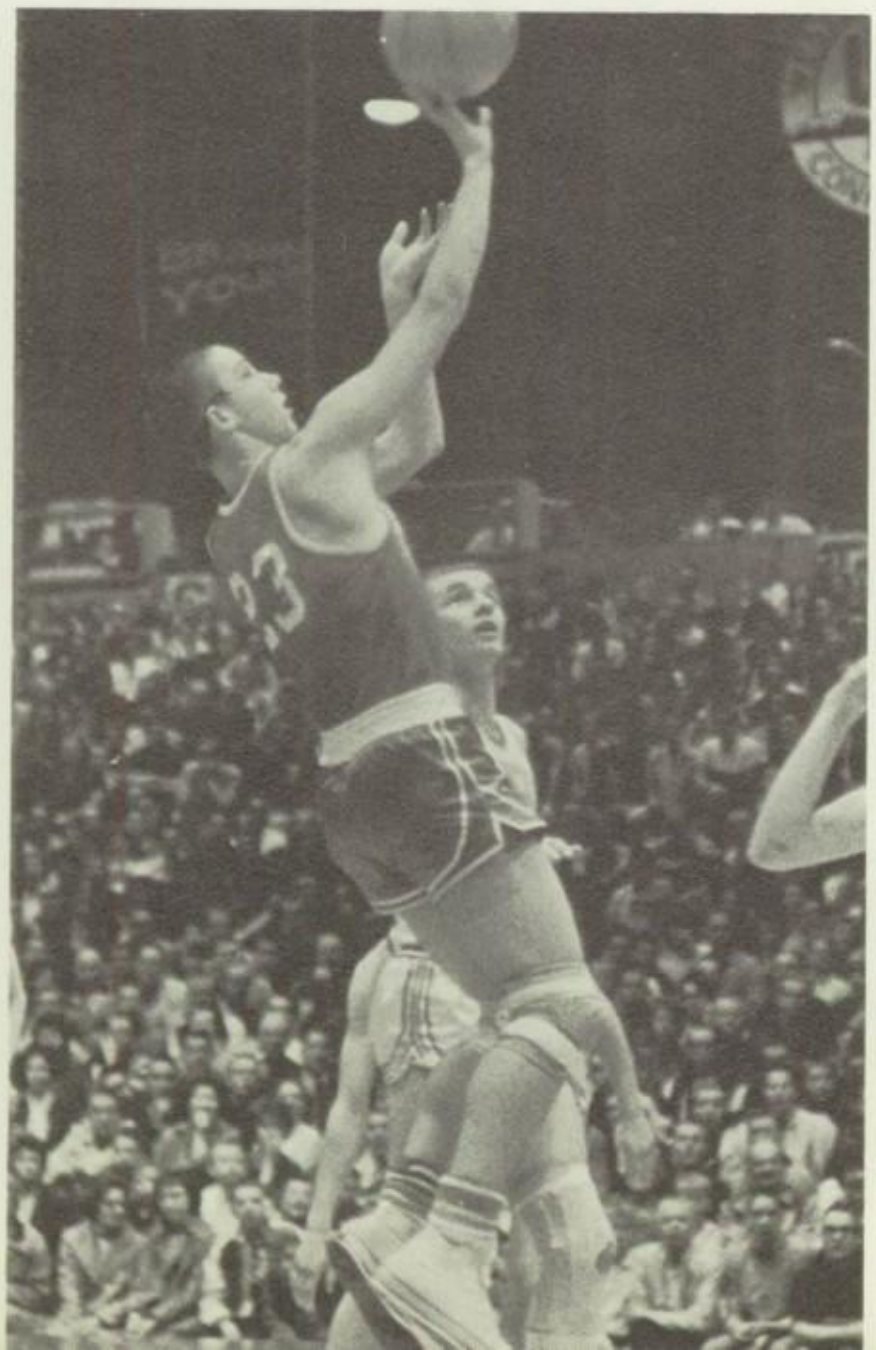
Bulldogs Hit Historic Peak. Second in State

The memorable day of Judge's highest achievement in its cage annals was March 16, 1963 at the University of Utah Fieldhouse. Before 6000 screaming student and adult spectators the Bulldogs faced the Wildcats of B. Y. High for the highest stakes in the State.

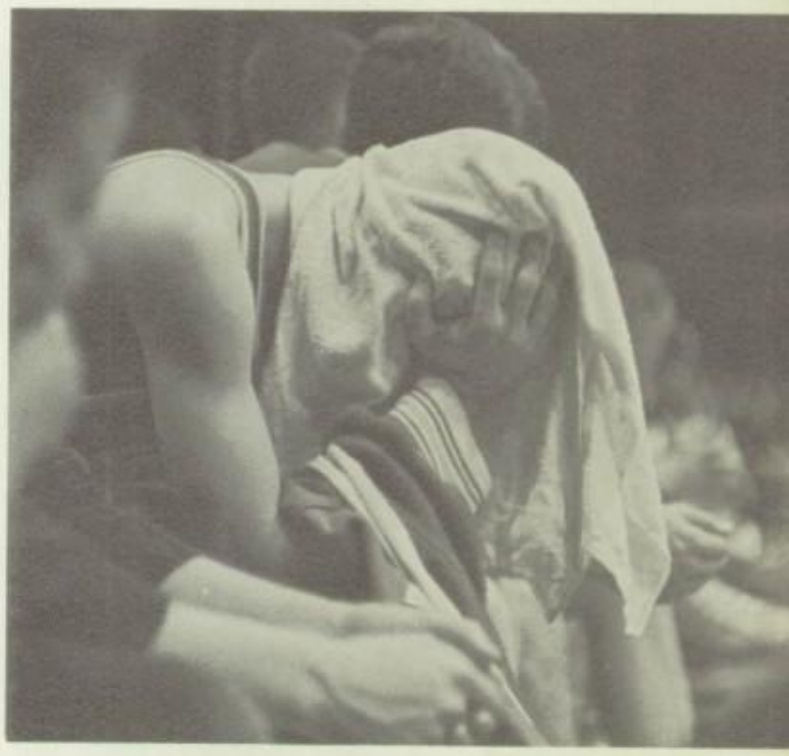
Each team was poised to play a tight defensive game. Though Greg Gardner barraged the Provo quintet with basket after basket, yet the Bulldogs still trailed by half time and at the three quarter mark the score was still in B. Y.'s favor 40-37. Then a momentary lapse in the Judge defense gave the Wildcats three fast buckets and the Klekas quintet could never recover and lost the weary battle 58-51, but won the lasting admiration of every Judge fan for bringing so much glory to her name.



It's all over for All-Stater Sonny Tangaro as he fouls out and Wildcats approach to congratulate him on a brilliant cage career.



With perfect fingertip control All-Stater Greg Gardner propels the pill toward the basket in his famous fadeaway jumper.



The score read: 58—51. . . B. Y. High
The feeling read: Dejection. . . Judge High

Allowing only one run to each of four of its six league rivals the Judge nine breezed to the Region VI title and prepared to enter the State semi-final playoffs.

Control artist Terry Redmond, strikeout specialist Jim O'Reilly and curve cutie Pat Clark lavished humility on rival batting averages while the lusty bats of Mike Kane, John Hunter, Mike Murray, Ray Thomas and John Seeronen feasted on rival pitching.

With hardly a weak spot in the defense, Coach Frank Klekas had few worries about gaining the triple Region Crown this year.

Inexperience Snags Cindermen's Hopes

For track Coach Odette this was a year for building. With mostly freshmen and sophomores on a 40 man squad he could not expect to defeat veteran competitors.

Lack of interest on the part of proven senior and junior veterans forced the coach to depend upon in-experienced underclassmen, who found their efforts a bit shy of victory against veteran competitors.

In a year or two these young cindermen will be running away with championship laurels.

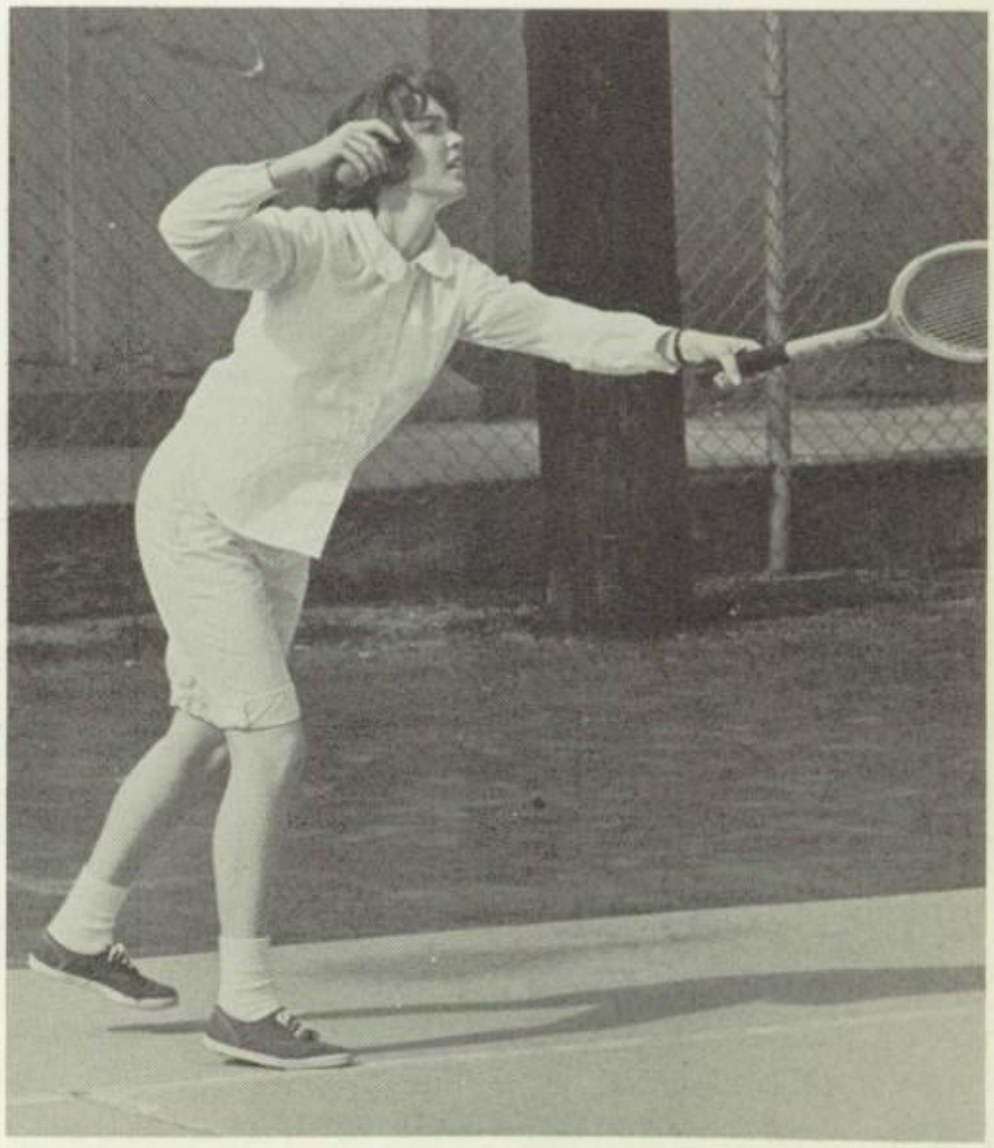
Varied Intramurals Keep Bodies Sound

Dedicated to the proposition that the body as well as the mind should be educated a varied program of intramural sports for boys and girls was designed this year to meet the needs and desires of all the students. In the fall it was basketball for the boys and volleyball for the girls. In the winter both competed in a ping-pong tournament, while in the spring the boys lifted weights and the girls played tennis.



A successful return is made by Barbara Ball in the girls tennis intramurals.

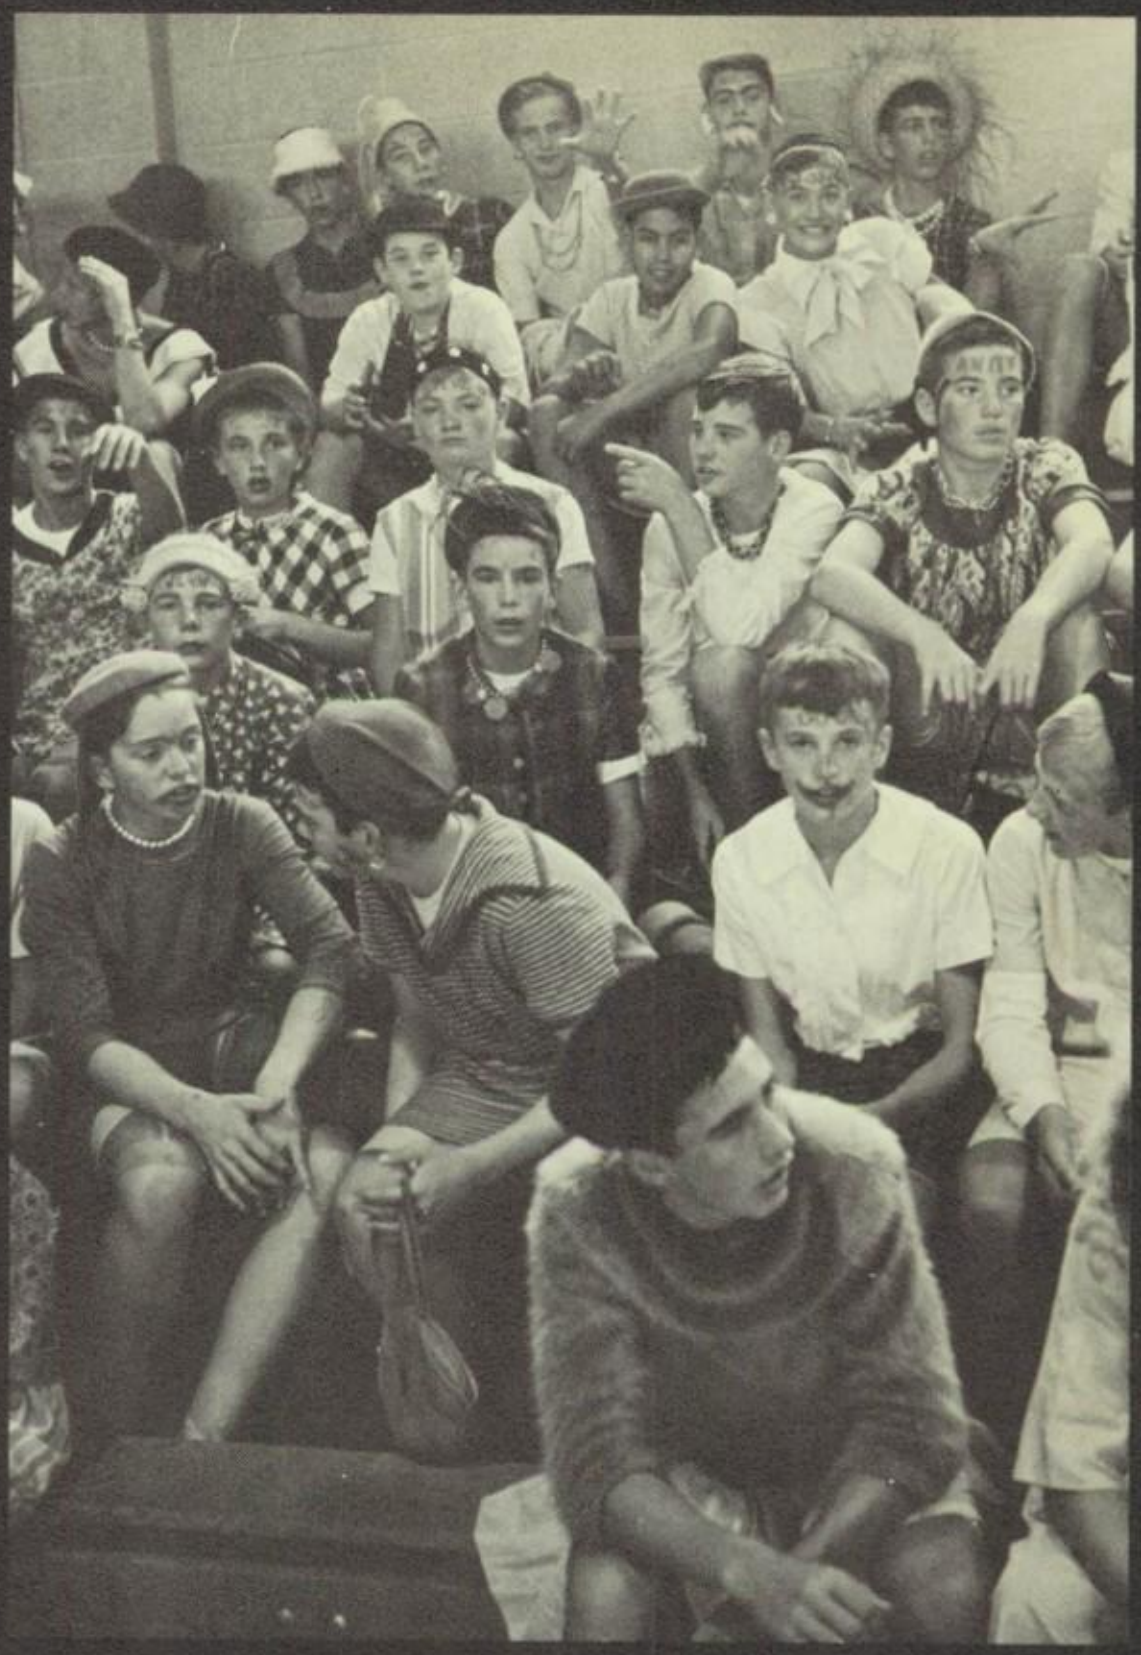
ACTIVITIES



New Chapel Creates Deeper Religious Atmosphere

A deeper religious atmosphere permeated the halls of Judge as the permanent and beautifully appointed Chapel was installed on the ground floor in the fall.

A consciousness of God's presence was created as students began to make daily visits to the Blessed Sacrament during lunch, and to attend Mass during Advent, Lent, and the month of May, in addition to regular attendance each Friday in the auditorium. The Chapel also provided a place for daily confessions.

The religious program was rounded out by the usual projects of the Sodality, the three day retreats, and the unusual forum and display of Vocation Day.

A special panel, Mike Lahey, Jim Hernon, Donna Tippets, Dennis Alsup, Pat McGurk, Tim Funk and Janice Brown discussed the need for more vocations in Utah.

Sodality boys form an honor guard as Father Gillespie transfers the Blessed Sacrament for permanent reservation in the new school chapel.

Father Flegge administers oath of office to Sodality leaders Steve Hunter, Sharon Guthrie, Mike Lahey and Cheri Morin.

The introduction of a new Vocation Day in March was highlighted by a Solemn High Mass.

Father Donohue inspires students to more devout devotion to the Blessed Mother during the Christmas retreat.

Many special days during the year were fittingly closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Spellen celebrated a High Requiem Mass and delivered the eulogy for Marilyn Chanson.

Service Is Motto For Nurses And Secretaries

Learning the art of rendering helpful service was the goal and achievement of a group of dedicated girls who belonged to the Future Nurses Club and the Secretarial Service Club.

The rudiments of practical health care were imparted by professional personnel. Our student secretaries provided invaluable assistance in preparing stencils, reports, and programs for a variety of school activities.

Student Scientists Explore Earth Wonders

To keep pace with the speedy advances being made in the field of science students devote extra class hours pursuing the wondrous mysteries of physical creation.

Thanks to the farsightedness of the planners of Judge Memorial the school is handsomely endowed with excellent chemistry, physics, biology and mathematics laboratories and facilities for our young scientists to pursue their explorations of the universe.

Language Study Key to Culture

A series of activities centered around the study of language as a medium of culture, occupied the attention of our many Foreign Language Clubs.

There was the Foreign Language Festival sponsored by the University of Utah, that all our linguists participated in.

Perhaps the featured event of the year was the Latin Banquet which attracted scores of Plebians, Patricians, and Slaves, who dined and were attired in true Roman fashion.

The true reverence for the Christ Child was captured at the Christmas assembly by a pageant of Nativity Scenes, accompanied by the singing of appropriate carols.

Dramatists Return. Stage Charley's Aunt And Talent Show

After a long sabbatical, Dramatics returned to the Judge Stage. Under the direction of Father Thomas O'Neill, a group of highly skilled thespians re-introduced "the theatre" with a superb three nights performance of the Broadway hit, "CHARLEY'S AUNT". The reception was so warm and enthusiastic that it is quite certain that Dramatics is here to stay and to improve.

The variety of skits and songs and the Nativity Pageant of the Talent Show, lent laughter, joy and reverence to the hearts of Judge students at Christmastime.

Working as a Santa has its deserved compensations — the simple delight and joy of two lovely children, Cathy Colby and Kathy Worley.

U.N. Club Members Learn and Teach Diplomacy and Democracy

The art of diplomatic discussion is no easy task. It is a challenge equal only to superior talent and sincere interest. Long months of study, research and rehearsal have made our UN Club neo-experts in the field of international affairs. Participation in the Utah annual Model United Nations Assembly, representing India, taught them how to blend democracy with diplomacy.

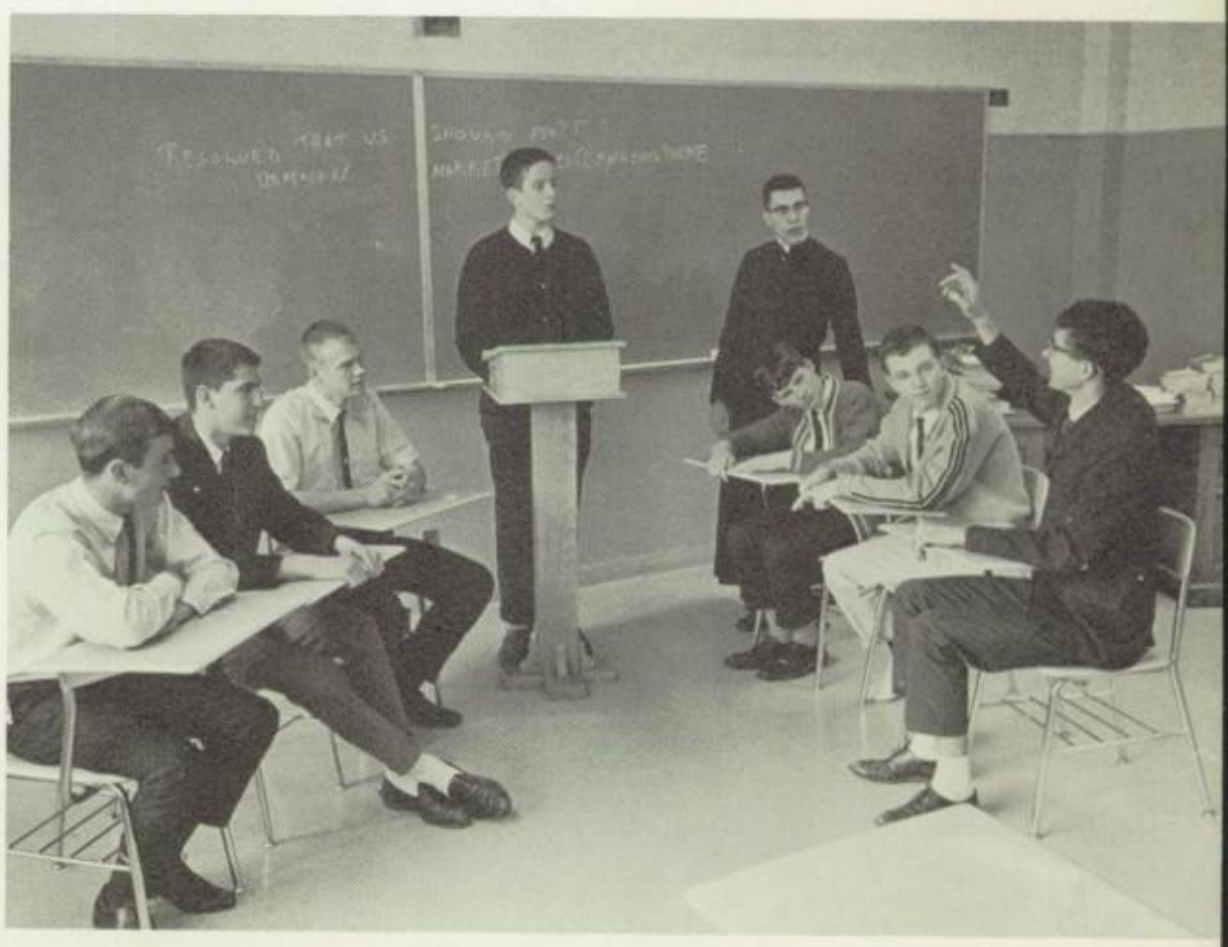
By Spoken Word. By Written Word Students Communicate Truth and Toleration

Nothing is more important today in the struggle for peace than communication of ideas, of knowledge, of truth. Our journalists and debators entered the challenging arena of communication by doing an argumentative battle on the issue of "UN or NO UN" and by publishing the bi-monthly JUDGEONIAN, through whose pages, ideas of student interest and welfare were transmitted with an incipient professional skill.



Score another one for Steve Kelly. To the delight of his fellow debaters, Tom Brown, Ken Holland, Russ Davoran, Pat Ingelby and Guy Grubaugh, his question has stumped the speaker John McGean and moderator, Father Fallon.

Student Leaders Stress Progress, Unity and Individualism

A share in the management of student affairs with more "front office" guidance than in previous years, helped members of the Student Council to lead their fellow students towards the fulfillment of their theme "SCHOOL UNITY THROUGH PROGRESSIVE INDIVIDUALISM".

Under the Council's leadership, the students gave enthusiastic support to both traditional and new projects. Some traditional items included the Welcome and Activities Dances, publication of the student directory and the JUDGEONIAN, Student Government Week, the Christmas Variety Show, and the Mission Drive. New projects were furnishings for the new Chapel, including the statue of St. Joseph as a memorial to Sister Corrine C.S.C., Athletic Fund Drive, adoption of the new school flag and emblem, Class Night, and Student Corridor Control.

These student leaders played a significant part in helping the students and faculty make the transition to a new administration so smooth and pleasant.

Throughout the year these Pep Club officers, Kathy Poehling, Virginia Anderson, Kathy Sabol, and Heidi Enderlin with their moderator, Mrs. Broadbent, led some 150 faithful female fans in forming the bulwark of school spirit.

Pepsters Always Present Always Supporting The Bulldogs

The care of Bulldog spirit was in the hands of the ever present Pep Club, who followed and supported the Red and Gold with fidelity, who lost their voices in their joy over victory, and who shed their tears in their sympathy over defeat. How wonderful so few tears were shed this year.

Senior Lettermen lead the student body in prayer at the outset of the Initiation Frolic for Freshmen.

Lettermen Bolster Sports Interest

They started the fire and constantly fanned the flame by encouraging underclassmen to join the ranks of Judge athletes, and finally they assumed the responsibility of conducting the campaign for Funds for Athletic Development. This last effort realized $7,500. representing $1,500 over the established goal.

A lively interest in sports was rejuvenated at Judge partly because of the activity of sixty members of the Lettermen's Club under the leadership of their President John Tangaro (Ist row, center).

Pomp and Precision. Clap and Cheer Quicken the Hearts Of Loyal Fans

Waves of bright red and blinding gold splashed and sprayed against the faces of fans, as our bouncy cheerleaders and snappy stepping marchers turned them into scenes of proud cheer and loyal laughter, at every football and basketball contest.

Together with the athletes, they too justly shared in their laurels and their glory.

Fans remained glued to their seats during half-time to watch the exciting and intricate formations of our Marchers.

The memory of the Welcome Dance, the Homecoming, the Senior Ball, the Sophomore Strut, the Junior Prom, the Activities Dance, and even the post game Sock Hops leave lasting, sentimental feelings of fondness and friendship.

How we planned and plotted our dates, and those of others; how seniors decided to have professional display artists decorate the gym, and how the sophomores did it themselves and enjoyed it; how the juniors went sophisticated with ultra formality at their prom and how everyone had a whirling whale of a time at the Freshman Welcome Dance, shall always return to fill our minds with memories of happy, enjoyable youth.

The Basilean Is Offered As a Replica Of Judge Memorial

What was Judge like this year? This question is what our yearbook staff has tried to answer. To incorporate within its few pages all that has happened, met with many difficulties. Selection of a theme presented a problem. We settled on CHANGE, believing it epitomized the main feature of Judge life. To have or not to have color. We decided to have some. Number of pages? We advanced to an even one hundred. What about the cover design, and how much space for sports, for activities, for faculty, for seniors, and on and on it went.

Finally we got it all packaged, thanks to our editors and especially to Father Catanzaro, who stood by us and granted our every need and request. Also to Alan Sloan, who shot, developed, printed and selected most of the photos in the BASILEAN.

Modesty won out and this view of Alan Sloan is the only one he would permit. Alan is the indispensible member of the yearbook. It could not have been produced without his tireless and generous efforts. He alone is responsible for the photographic content of this volume.

Dead serious about their business, copy editor, Judy Vitzthum, senior editor, Danielle Clawson, and associate editor, Harlan Schmidt, give final check on copy.

Father Catanzaro, BASILEAN Moderator, enjoys one of the caricatures co-editors, Sandy McChrystal and Sergio Del Hoyo artfully placed on the yearbook page plan.

The BASILEAN was on the spot when Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson arrived in Salt Lake City last Fall. There to meet him were editor-in-chief Sandy McChrystal, shaking the VP's hand and Barbara Iucker, associate editor and Father Catanzaro.

New Banner Flies For Judge Memorial

A new flag now flies for Judge, with the gold crown of Christ Our King resting upon the symbols of the school.

Our school motto AD MAJOREM DEI GLORIAM - "To the Greater Glory of God" - united the sign of Our King to the coat of arms of the Sisters of the Holy Cross and to the shield of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales.

The Holy Cross motto, SPES UNICA - "One Hope" - is thus related to Francis de Sales' TENUI NEC DIMITTAM - "I Hold Firm And I Shall Not Let Go" - in expressing the spirit of unity and fidelity which permeates Judge Memorial High School. The symbols are backed with red for Sacrifice and trimmed in gold for Glory.

Though the change from day to night is scarcely to be perceived, yet when night is come we behold it very different from the day; and thus as people become wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight, customs rise up from the spirit of the world, and spread by little and little, till a departure from the simplicity that there is in Christ becomes as distinguishable as light from darkness, to such who are crucified to the world.

My dear Miss Pame,

Perchance you have entertained the thought within the clouded chambers of your alledged cerebral cavity that I would bequeath you a saccharine remembrance of my fond affection for you, unpon this page in my most formal script. Ah, my good woman the very idea is simply ludicrous, in fact its nauseating. As for extending my good wishes for your future happiness and success at our scholastic institution, the very thought of my having to walk down the hallowed halls and share the enlightening and inspirational academic periods with you during the course of our junior year prompts me to apply for membership in the Black Muslims.

Love and kisses,

Dear Cathy,
This has really been great, but I'm glad its all over for awhile. I'm not going to write an essay, or anything - but - I'd like to say this - Between Fr. Hillman's religion, Dr. Thomasita's biology, Miss Wolf's geometry, we've been through a lot. (You might say a war.) & old veteran, enjoy recoperation, & come back fighting.

Love, the other,
Kath

Kath,
Yes, been fun

Cathy,
It has been fun
this year, agreed.
Especially with yours
and my dear old friend,
Father Hillman.
Have fun this summer.
O. K. Have fun driving also! (Ha!)

Dear Cathy,
Remember those crazy French classes.
Here's hoping to see you next year.
Love,

Miss Name,
It's been a great year & your other ½ have helped to make it so. I hope you'll be there to share the good times of next year.
Sue '65

Dear Cathy,
I wish you spelt your name with a "K". Then I could call you a name starter. Best of luck and God bless you. I hope you go far in this world (and the next).
Love + prayers,
Kathy Balid

Cathy,
How will we ever get along now that we don't have French anymore? It was such an inspiring class. It was fun having you in some classes & I'm glad I got to know you better. Have fun this summer.
Good luck

Cath,

Just a little reminder on what is to happen in the next few days: You are going to be seeing me. Aren't you happy? Don't say it. Well maybe I'll see you during the summer. Since you are going to be laying around I will have to keep you busy.

Good Luck

Judy

(the one and only)

Dear Cathi,

Best luck always to a real French scholar. Keep up the good work and the good spirits. Keep Judge going for us.
